About the performer ...

Paul Salzberg started learning piano at 6 years old with the encouragement of his family and friends. His older brother by 4 years, Owen Salzberg, a performing pianist, has been a role model for musical excellence. Paul is eager to continue his musical education, and will be attending the California State University Sacramento School of Music in the fall.

Paul has completed the Music Teachers' Association of California "Certificate of Merit Level 10" musicianship program under the guidance of his teacher and mentor, William (Bill) Becker. Paul has also been drawn to musical education since his sophomore year. He has taught 15 young pianists and organized two studio recitals in conjunction with his high school senior project.

Paul has also studied trumpet for the past 6 years. After being introduced to trumpet during middle school, Paul has since performed with the Natomas Charter Symphonic and Advanced Jazz Bands on trumpet for the past 4 years.

Of his achievements, Paul is most proud of receiving the Natomas Charter School Instrumental Music Distinction Award during his junior year and the Herb Alpert Emerging Young Artist Award and participation at the California State Summer School for the Arts (CSSSA). He is grateful for being able to shape other young minds through music, and having the opportunity to perform for the people that are important to him in his life.

Paul would like to thank his parents, grandparents, brother, mentors, friends, and students for their support and guidance.
